Kintamani, Agung Volcano & Besakih

Tour Code: HE 4

Price: USD 3,593 (per flight / for max 6 persons)

We fly to the breathtaking volcanic crater of Mt. Batur via Tanah Lot Temple on the west coast. We reach Mt. Batur volcano after 30 minutes of flight time over the island's wonderfully diverse landscape. This crater is the remains of a huge explosion that occurred thousands of years ago. Lake Batur, Bali's largest lake, situated within this crater, next to a younger active volcano. The small volcano is constantly recreating itself in periodic eruptions of ash and rock. We explore this sometimes-smoking volcano by circling the crater.

Proceeding east can we then fly over Lake Batur and past Mt. Abang, reaching Besakih temple, Bali's biggest temple complex. The helicopter now starts to climb to an astonishing 11,000 ft. to reach the crater of Mt. Agung. Upon reaching the top, we circle the crater and then start to descend towards Besakih temple at the foot of the mountain. In the distance Mt. Rinjani on the neighboring island of Lombok is visible on a clear day. On the return journey to the Heliport, we pass numerous rivers, valleys, hotels and villas and of course – luscious rice fields. Prior to landing, the route takes us via the eastern coastline to see the beaches of Sanur and Benoa harbor.

Flight of the Temples Coastline –

Tour Code: HE 6

Price: USD 1,677 (per flight / for max 6 persons)

Flight Approx. 40 minutes | Upto 6 PAX | Max payload 400 kg.

This is a panoramic flight of the west and south coasts of Bali that highlights the beaches of Kuta and Legian, the mysterious Tanah Lot temple, and remarkable rice terraces. Tanah Lot temple was founded in 1481 AD by a famous Hindu priest Dang Hyang Nirartha. It is situated in the ocean, and can only be reached during low tide. The temple has a reputation for being dangerous, partly due to the many poisonous snakes that live in the surrounding caves. It is believed by the locals that these snakes are protectors of the temples, guarding it from intruders. We proceed towards the southern Bukit Peninsula, pass Jimbaran bay and Dreamland surf beach. Then we fly onwards to the ancient Uluwatu temple, where the coastline of limestone cliffs, remote beaches and seaweed farms are truly spectacular.

Uluwatu Temple Coastline Flight (Bukit Flight)

Tour Code: HE 7

Price: USD 1,395

Flight Approx. 30 minutes | Upto 6 PAX | Max payload 420 kg. Uluwatu means “the head of stone”, and is one of the most spectacular Hindu temples along the Bali coastline. This beautiful temple is located atop a limestone cliff towering 90 meters above the Indian Ocean. Flying south past Jimbaran Bay and Dreamland surfing beach, we view this ancient temple and then continue over deserted beaches, seaweed farms and limestone cliffs and the famous Garuda Wisnu Kencana statue.
