Bali Spa & Wellness

Bali is the world's leading destination for wellness, spa, yoga, healing & spiritual vacation.

On Bali-Wellness-Guide.com you can find a the best spas on Bali.

The mainly purpose of the Balinese massage is relaxation, feeding and cleaning of the body. The massage stimulates the blood circulation in the body and ensures that wastes will leave through the skin and excretory organs. The massage can help with symptoms like neck pain, whiplash, back pain, RSI, stress, rheumatism, and digestive problems. The massage is exerted mainly by hands with use of essential oils and can be combined with other therapies. The basic techniques that are used are rolling the skin, acupressure and stroking the muscles.
